

MR. SCOTT WEDS AT HOT SPRINGS

Young Richmonder Makes Miss Hildreth Dunn His Bride.

THOSE IN ATTENDANCE

Many From This City—Elaborate Decorations—Reception Follows Wedding.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOT SPRINGS, VA., September 27.— The sun never shone on a prettier bride than the one of to-day, and a bride never had a more beautiful day for her wedding; so there were many delightful things associated with the event aside from the flowers, presents, congratulations and becoming gowns.

All of the villagers, as well as the southern colony here, were enthusiastic in wishing the bride a happy life today, when Miss Hildreth Dunn, the pretty debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lanier Dunn, of Washington, was married to George Cole Scott, of Richmond, at 4 o'clock.

Elaborate Decorations.

The Episcopal Church is rather small, but artistic, and for that reason makes an unusually attractive setting for a wedding. It was elaborately decorated with vines from Georgia, and flowers, so that little of the church itself showed, for the walls were covered with a network of vines and long festoons hung from the oak beams overhead. These were decorated with large white wedding bells. Bells also hung over the chancel, which was transformed into a wedding altar with flowers of pink and white. In fact, pink and white were the prevailing shades in the whole design, including an arch at the entrance, bouquets on the pews and pink and white Japanese lilies above the altar.
Below was a row of lighted candles.

The bride wore a gown with long train of white satin and tulle. She carried a large bouquet of white roses.
Her sister, Miss Elizabeth Dunn, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Gladys Ingalls, Miss Margaret Craven, Miss Niameth and Miss Gibson. They wore white dresses and white hats, trimmed with pink roses, tied with a knot of white tulle under the chin. They carried huge bouquets of white roses. The ushers were Messrs. Gordon Hobson, Sidney Buford, M. C. Branch, Stuart McGuire, Mc-Kee Dunn and Dr. E. L. McGill.

Bishop Strange, of North Carolina, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev.
John G. Scott, rector. Preceding this was a violin solo by Mr. Mario Arminelli, accompanied by Miss Serby, on the pipe organ.

Post-Wedding Reception.

A reception at the Dunn villa was largely attended by friends and relatives of the families.
A few of those present were Miss Boyle Scott, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Fred Scott, his mother; Mr. and Mrs. Lanier Dunn, Lanier Dunn, Jr., S.
Barton French, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Stearns, Mrs. Alfred B. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. George Guntton, the Misses Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Scott, Sidney Burford Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Scott, Mrs. James H. Scott, G. W.
Scott, Mrs. Elizabeth Leigh, Jr., Mrs. Barton Craven, C. D. Langhorne, Lanier Mc-Kee, Mr. Melville E. Ingalls, John Currie and many others.

Anti-Nuptial Affair.

The New York Herald of Tuesday has the following relating to the ante-nuptial entertainment in the wedding of Miss Hildreth Dunn: "Dunn gave a luncheon at the villa of Mr. and Mrs. Lanier Dunn to-day for her bridesmaids, who are Miss Gladys Ingalls, Miss Margaret Craven, of Cambridge; Miss Nesmith and Miss Sarah Gibson, of Baltimore. The maid of honor, her sister, Miss Elizabeth Dunn, was also present. Mr. George Cole Scott entertained his guests at luncheon at the Commodore Hotel. This afternoon the bridal party rehearsed the marriage ceremony in St. Luke's Church.
Many relatives and friends have arrived from Richmond and Washington for the wedding."

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., September 27.—The mystery which surrounds the disappearance of J. H. Clark, of Berkley, has not yet been cleared, and perhaps never will be. Mrs. Clark believes her husband committed suicide by jumping overboard from the ferry steamer Elizabeth yesterday morning. She said Mr. Clark has been despondent for some time, and often said that if it were not for her, he would kill himself. Before leaving his home yesterday morning, Mr. Clark left his valuables and money with his wife, with the exception of enough change to pass through the Berkley ferry gate. Mrs.
Clark is a native of Jamesville, N. C., where she met her husband.

YOUNG COLE IN JAIL.
Charles P. Cole, charged with the embezzlement of $400 from the Southern Bell Telephone Company, of which he was formerly cashier, when arraigned in the Police court this morning, waived examination through his counsel. One of his friends solicited special treatment for Cole, and, therefore, he is allowed to separate from the other prisoners, mostly negroes.

Cole came to Norfolk six years ago from Jonesboro, N. C., where his parents live now. He was allowed to go there for the purpose of raising money to pay the bonding company, but he failed in that, hence the criminal prosecution. The bonding company now he showed no anxiety, solicitude or chagrin in his predicament in the Police Court this morning. He is six feet tall, thirty years of age, good looking and pleasant in his manner.

CHURCH AT VIRGINIA BEACH.
There will be a meeting on Monday at Virginia Beach of the official members of three of the Methodist churches in Princess Anne county—Haygood, Providence and Cape Henry—for the organization of a Methodist Church at the Beach, authority for the establishment of which has been received from Rev.
Dr. Paul Whitehead, presiding elder of the Norfolk district. There is a colony of permanent residents at the Beach who would like to have a church there. The circuit will include Virginia Beach, Cape Henry and another church in Princess Anne county.

Orville J. Flemming, former justice of the peace of Princess Anne county, convicted of the murder of Clarence Snyder, of Norfolk, and sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years, will be released in March on a conditional pardon, after having served five years of his sentence.

NORFOLK TROOPS INSPECTED.

Colonel J. Lane Stearns, assistant inspector-general of the Virginia Infantry, inspected the Norfolk companies in the armory here to-night. These included the local companies, "B" and "C," Norfolk Light Artillery Blues. The battalion was under the command of Major T. J. Nottingham, and made a very satisfactory showing; 173 out of 216 men were present.

Robert Williams, third engineer on the Eastern steamer Vearsdale, will be compelled to have an eye removed in New York, the sight of which he has lost.
He was set upon in Queen Street one night last week by three negroes who set upon him suddenly, knocked him down, robbed him of $15.00 and left him bruised and helpless in the street.

Mayor J. G. Riddick has paid back taxes for 1892, 1894 and 1895 to the amount of $400 under protest. He says he believes he has paid the taxes heretofore, as he was in the habit of asking for all of the taxes against him at the time he paid, but he cannot find the receipts.

auspices. About seven hundred persons were present. Dr. M. M. Hall, of Rich-

Robert W. Hunter, of Winchester, nack, Lancaster county, was before L. R.

Fleming upon the charge of entering the house of Mr. Lombard Sullivan, an aged citizen, who lives alone at 10 o'clock on Saturday night last, robbing him of $22.
Mr. Sullivan was lying on the bed with his pants on when Commodore entered the room. A lamp was burning dimly, and the robber was recognized by Mr. Sullivan, who was covered with a bag and the bed clothing thrown over his head. He was soon suffocated and left in a helpless condition. Commodore was admitted to bail in five hundred dollars.

Mrs. J. W. Clay, of Campbell county, is Mr. C. N. Friend was called to Burke-a few days ago to look after an insurance case of J. H. Boole by lightning, a few weeks ago. He gives an encouraging report, and outlook of the agricultural and manufacturing interests of that section of the State, and states that stock and grass raising is fast supplanting the old methods of farming, and the consequent improvement of lands is causing an advance in the price of farms.

Some bank men of Richmond visited

THE FARRINGTON BOYS ARE FOUND GUILTY

Sentenced to Five Years in Penitentiary for Burning Barn of Speaker Cannon's Cousin.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., September 27.— The trial of Thomas Farrington and his two sons for burning the store and barn of Isaac Stanley, a first cousin of Speaker Cannon, in Sumner township last April, which was begun in the Superior Court here last Friday resulted this afternoon in conviction of the boys and their sentence to five years each at hard labor on the county roads. They appealed to the Supreme Court.

After deliberating twenty-four hours, the jury failed to agree on Thomas Farrington's guilt, standing ten for conviction to two for acquittal from the first to the last ballot. He gave a thousand dollar bond for his appearance at another trial.
Evidence of threats against Stanley in revenge for informing revenue officers of illicit dealings in liquor the day before the burning and the confession of Fred Cannon, who is serving a five-year sentence, that Farrington, Senior, sent him and the two sons on his mules to burn the property, secured the verdict against the boys. Farrington, Senior, was prominent, and the evidence showed that for fifteen years he had been dealing in illicit whiskey, and the people of the community were afraid to inform on him. At the time of the burning, Stanley and his family escaped being burned in their residence only thirty yards from the barn by the dropping of a box of dynamite he had stored under the rafters of the barn. The explosion awoke him and his neighbors in time to prevent a general conflagration.

To Try Revenue Officers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., September 27.— Ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock, who has been retained as counsel for revenue officials indicted in the United States Court here for alleged frauds against the government, arrived this evening, and is in consultation with ex-Judge Spence B. Adams and W. P. Bynum. Court convenes Monday and the defendants, it is said, will press for speedy trial.

The Corporation Commission announces resignation of J. W. Aycock, as bank examiner to become secretary-treasurer of the Goldsboro Furniture Company and the appointment of F. J. Haywood, Jr., as his successor to enter on his duties at once. Mr. Haywood has for some time been cashier of Southern Loan and Savings Bank of Charlotte. He is a son of Dr. P. J. Haywood, of Raleigh.
Attorneys for W. D. Murray under sentence to serve five years in Durham county for killing J. S. Murray, have petitioned Governor Glenn to stay execution of the sentence until argument for pardon can be heard. The Governor has set the case for Saturday at 11 o'clock, when both sides will be given a hearing.
Judge J. H. Haywood, of the superior court, on the petition for mandamus, compelling the Raleigh Aldermen to order an election on "dispensary" and "open saloons" and granted the mandamus.

LETTER TO AUGUST GROCERY CO.

Richmond, Va.
Dear Sir: You sell a good many things by the gallon. Being a decent man, you give full measure.
You know what we mean: you know that short weight and short measure are common among us—well, we hope there are no short measures and weights in your town.

There are, though. Ribbons and lace and trimmings, sold by the "dozen," measure nine or ten yards. There is no complaint, because "they all do it." You have the same plague in your goods—nearly everything, canned or bottled, gives full weight in a factory-package.
We are one of the almost numberless. We sell paint, by the gallon, to paint your house; and our gallon is just the same size as yours that you measure vinegar with—231 cubic inches.
Good paint too—Devon lead-and-zinc—takes fewer gallons than mixed paint and wears twice as long as lead-and-oil.
You own a house. That's why we are writing to you.
Yours truly
F. W. DEVOE & CO.
